348. Educational and Employment Survey Conducted by the Kansas Crippled Children Commission. Kansas Crippled Children Commission, 821 First National Bank Bldg., Wichita 2, Kansas. June, 1944. 17 pp. Mimeographed.

The Commission sent questionnaires to all their former cases who were 16 or older, were not in state institutions, and whose addresses could be located. Of the 2737 questionnaires sent, 1253 were returned. In this report, tables show the sex, school attendance, use of prosthesis, marital status, dependents, living arrangements, employment status and occupation, hours of work, work efficiency, and cost to the Commission of care and treatment of these persons. Of special interest are the lists of diagnoses of former patients now in the military services [11.15% of those 21 years and older; 10.20% of those 16 to 21.]

"...over two-thirds of the cases are either working full time, farming, performing housewife duties, attending school, or are in military service. At the same time, among those persons under 21 over 16% were either unemployed, unable to work, or only working part time and likewise, among those persons over 21, nearly 13% were in one of these three categories. It is in these three groups, which are bound to increase...that there lies a challenge to the state to devise some type of program, whether it be sheltered workshops, homebound industry, or special arrangements for some type of work."
